

‘The hardest part of any big project is to begin. We have begun – we are underway – we have a passion. We want to make a difference’

- Sir Peter Blake

Congratulations! By writing down your dreams you have taken the first step towards achieving them. This action plan is to help you identify what you need to do next to make your dreams happen. Fill this in online, or print it out, and share with your teacher, friends and family.

This action plan is to help me achieve:

My dream for myself:

or my dream for New Zealand:

Why is this dream important to me?

Who within my family or friends can I ask for support or advice to achieve my dream?

Who else can I look to for inspiration or guidance to achieve my dream?

How do I get in touch with them?

What other equipment, tools or resources will I need to get started?

When do I want to achieve my dream by?

What are some things that might go wrong and how will I fix them?

The first five steps I need to take to turn my dream into reality are:
